

DEMOCRATIC CLUBS

Daniel O'Connell, San Francisco, Cal., wires The Commoner as follows: "The California Bryan club organized today, congratulates the nation on your consent to accept nomination for president and believes the people of every state will instruct their delegates to vote for your nomination."

The following report is sent out from Massachusetts: "A Massachusetts Bryan club was organized October 29 with Henry T. Schaefer, president, 14 Kilby street, Boston; Whitfield Tuck, secretary, Winchester, Mass.; Dr. E. S. Taylor, treasurer, 176 Federal street, Boston. The object of the club is to work for the nomination and election of William Jennings Bryan for president in 1908. All who wish to aid in this good work are invited to become members and inform the secretary.

The West Side Bryan club has been organized at South Omaha, Nebraska. Officers were chosen as follows: Thomas F. Corrigan, president; Michael Goggins, secretary; William Schneider, treasurer; James Sutherland, vice president; William O'Connell, corresponding secretary; M. Murphy, marshal at arms; Emil Holub, sergeant at arms; trustees, a committee of five as follows: Frank Good, Bert Spearman, Peter McGoldrich, Louis Zadina, Henry Ryan.

Joseph R. Rossom, editor of the Cullman (Ala.) Democrat, writes: "I have the honor to inform you that, pursuant to the enclosed call issued in last week's Democrat, a Bryan Democratic club was organized here last night. Its purpose is to see that a Bryan delegation is sent to the state convention from this (Cullman) county, and to work for a full instructed Bryan delegation from Alabama at the next convention. This movement is early, but it appeared proper that some move be made now.

The following resolution was adopted by the King County Democratic club, Seattle, Wash.:

Whereas, Hon. William J. Bryan has recently consented to again become our candidate for president of the United States, in case the democratic electors signify their wishes that he do so, and

Whereas, The members of the King County Democratic club regard Mr. Bryan not only as being the peer of any living man, but also as the first citizen of this republic, whose principles and teachings are being vindicated day by day, and whose wisdom and statesmanship are especially needed to repair the errors, mistakes and general incompetency of the present republican administration.

Therefore be it Resolved, That the King County Democratic club, hereby pledges to Mr. Bryan its earnest and loyal support during the period of his candidacy for the exalted position to which he aspires, and we promise him our assistance and cooperation after a reunited and militant democracy shall witness his inauguration March 4, 1909.

HEL. QUERY

Some little while ago a popular writer visited a jail in order to take notes for a magazine article on prison life. On returning home he described the horrors he had seen, and his description made a deep impression on the mind of his little daughter Mary. The writer and his offspring, a week later, were in a train together, which stopped at a station near a gloomy building. A man asked:

"What place is that?"

"The county jail," another answered promptly.

Whereupon Mary embarrassed her father and aroused the suspicions of the other occupants of the carriage by asking, in a loud, shrill voice:

"Is that the jail you were in, father?"—Judge's Library.

SOME NATURE FAKES

After a careful and impartial consideration of all the evidence bearing on the subject, the investigating committee reports that notwithstanding their long life and apparent respectability the following are undoubtedly nature fakes:

The bull in the china shop.

The wolf at the door.

The fly in the ointment.

The dog in the manger.

The bee in the bonnet.

The flea in the ear.

The rat that was smelled.

The chorus-girl's lobster.

Pigs in clover.

Horse and horse.

Time flies.

The Welsh rabbit.

The man on a lark.—Indianapolis News.

TOO TRANSPARENT

"But," said the summer girl, "what I'm looking for is a parasol suitable for use at the seashore."

"This," said the clerk, "is just the thing."

"Oh, no. I'm sure people could see through that."—Philadelphia Ledger.

ALONG SIMILAR LINES

"Ever try an automobile, Judge?" said a friend.

"No," replied the Judge; "but I've tried a lot of people who have."—Jewish Ledger.

THE VALUE OF CHARCOAL

Few People Know How Useful It is in Preserving Health and Beauty

Costs Nothing to Try

Nearly everybody knows that charcoal is the safest and most efficient disinfectant and purifier in nature, but few realize its value when taken into the human system for the same cleansing purpose.

Charcoal is a remedy that the more you take of it the better; it is not a drug at all, but simply absorbs the gases and impurities always present in the stomach and intestines and carries them out of the system.

Charcoal sweetens the breath after smoking, drinking or after eating onions and other odorous vegetables.

Charcoal effectually clears and improves the complexion, it whitens the teeth and further acts as a natural and eminently safe cathartic.

It absorbs the injurious gases which collect in the stomach and bowels; it disinfects the mouth and throat from the poison of catarrh.

All druggists sell charcoal in one form or another, but probably the best charcoal and the most for the money is in Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges; they are composed of the finest powdered Willow charcoal, and other harmless antiseptics in tablet form or rather in the form of large pleasant tasting lozenges, the charcoal being mixed with honey.

The daily use of these lozenges will soon tell in a much improved condition of the general health, better complexion, sweeter breath and purer blood, and the beauty of it is that no possible harm can result from their continued use, but, on the contrary, great benefit.

A Buffalo physician, in speaking of the benefits of charcoal, says: "I advise Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges to all patients suffering from gas in stomach and bowels, and to clear the complexion and purify the breath, mouth and throat; I also believe the liver is greatly benefited by the daily use of them; they cost but twenty-five cents a box at drug stores, and although in some sense a patent preparation, yet I believe I get more and better charcoal in Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges than in any of the ordinary charcoal tablets."
